Dear Sumari

I am so disappointed that we won't be working together in future.

You have been an absolute breath of fresh air and I have loved working with you. You are so enthusiastic and have a wonderful way with people. You are sharp and knowledgeable and will be an asset to any company you work with in future.

If you need any referral going forward, please don't hesitate to hand over my contact details if needed. I wish you all the very best for your future and sincerely hope that we can work together again soon.

Such an extremely talented woman!

All the best!
